Sorry, Jim, I've been dealing with a house repair problem this morning at home and just now saw this. I expect to be in office by about 10:15, so not sure what the rest of your day looks like. I also spoke with Donna this morning and am hoping she'll share questions that came out of their House staff briefing.

Ayn -- Not fair to give you an assignment with no context, though I have to admit it took me a lot of today to get that context.

How about you and I sit down with the PP tomorrow around 9:00 or so to figure it all out?

Jim
